

Advanced Trial Advocacy: Bibliography of Materials

January 2001

A digitized version of this document is available in Microsoft Outlook's Public Folders, accessible through your TJSJL e-mail account. Within the Public Folders, click on "All Public Folders" then "Research Guides." Locate your course name and download the document to a floppy disk. You can then open and review the document using Word. In addition, two paper copies of this document are available on Course Reserve during the Spring 2001 semester.

The entries in this document are based on the Spring 2001 Elective Course Descriptions contained in your registration materials, as follows:

This course examines civil and criminal trial practice for the student whose plans for the future include courtroom litigation. The course will provide advanced training in each phase of trial preparation including motions in limine, voir dire, opening statements and closing arguments, direct and cross examination, witness impeachment, and rehabilitation.
