JURISPRUDENCE

Online Resource Guide, pp. 2-3

Bibliography of Materials, pp. 4-82

August 2004

The entries in this document are based on the course description for Jurisprudence in the Thomas Jefferson School of Law Fall 2004, Registration Bullets, as follows:

This course explores the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings of the law. All of the schools of jurisprudential thought are discussed. This discussion includes: natural law, positivism, realism, historical jurisprudence, sociological jurisprudence, economic analysis and critical legal studies. The differing approaches are related to legal and case analysis. This course is graded non-anonymously and may satisfy the upper legal writing requirement.

A digitized version of this document is available in Microsoft Outlook's Public Folders, accessible through your e-mail account. Within the Public Folders, click on "Research Guides," then click on your course name and download the document to a floppy disk. You can then open and review the document using Word. Paper copies of this document are available on Course Reserve during the Fall 2004 term.
