

WAIVER OF LUNCH PERIOD

As an employee of Thomas Jefferson School of Law, I am regularly scheduled to work a six (6) hour shift. California law requires a meal period of at least 30 minutes after an employee has worked five (5) hours.

I have been advised that I am allowed to waive that meal period by signing a waiver with my employer. My signature below indicates that I am waiving my meal period in order to leave work at the end of six hours of work. I understand that I am entitled to one ten (10) minute break during the first four (4) hours of my work shift.
