WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURES

If withdrawal from the summer session becomes necessary, please refer to the Student Handbook and the tuition refund schedule published below. Non-attendance in class or notifying the instructor does not constitute an official withdrawal from a course or school. WITHDRAWALS BECOME EFFECTIVE ON THE DATE THAT A WRITTEN REQUEST IS RECEIVED IN THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE.

Recipients of Federal Title IV Aid (Federal Stafford, PLUS and Perkins Loans) are subject to federal return of funds requirements, calculated at the time of withdrawal, to determine earned and unearned aid received for the period. The school is required to return all or part of the unearned aid according to the federal calculation, regardless of charges incurred. Students should contact the Financial Assistance Office & Business Office to determine how they will be affected.

REFUND POLICY

All requests for refunds/credits are subject to the governing regulations of the various federal, state and institutional programs. Refunds for students who have received state or federal funds for the semester are returned to the program, as the regulations require. Students fall under this return/repayment responsibility when they are funded through the Stafford/Plus Student Loan or Perkins Loan programs or receive grants. Further information may be obtained by contacting the Financial Assistance Office and Business Office. Refer to the TJSL Student Handbook for complete details regarding the refund policy and requests for refunds.

COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL

This schedule applies only to the COMPLETE WITHDRAWALS from Thomas Jefferson School of Law. Students dropping individual courses should refer to the Partial Withdrawal schedule. Refunds will be calculated for those students who withdraw or drop on or after the first day of the term, and are calculated on the total semester cost. Any balance owed, after calculation of the refund, will be due and payable immediately. Any balance remaining, after calculation of the refund, will be distributed in the order mandated by federal regulation. This policy is subject to revision as federal, state and institutional policies change. (See the TJSL Student Handbook for complete details regarding the refund policy and requests for refunds.)

Note: Due to federal return of funds requirements, it is possible for recipients of federal financial assistance to still owe an outstanding balance to the school after withdrawal. In addition, it is also possible for students on deferred payment plans to still owe an outstanding balance after withdrawal.

The summer session begins on Monday, June 13, and ends on Sunday, August 7, 2011. There is no class on July 4, 2011. See the Final Exam Schedule for exact days and times of exams.

FINAL EXAMS

The final examination schedule is posted. Please note that multiple examinations on one day at different times is not considered a conflict. The schedule is published in advance to enable students to plan their exam schedule before they register. Exams will be re-scheduled for a particular student only in exceptional cases. Contact Kay Henley if you have questions or concerns regarding a possible conflict in your exam schedule.

MEDICAL EMERGENCIES

Students who have a medical condition that may require emergency treatment are asked to provide information regarding the nature of the medical condition, any medication that is being taken or any other "life-saving" information that can be provided to paramedics. The information will be kept as confidential as is practical and only used if emergency medical treatment is necessary. Email the Director of Student Services, Lisa Ferreira at lisaf@tjisl.edu with any medical conditions or information. This information is not carried over from semester to semester. If you would like this information kept on file, please email Lisa Ferreira each term.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

It is the policy of the law school to provide reasonable accommodations for disabled students. Students whose disabilities may require some type of accommodation are encouraged to discuss these with the Student Services Assistant Director, Angela Bayne as early as possible. Formal requests for accommodations must be submitted one month prior to the date needed. Appropriate modifications and accommodations will be worked out on a case-by-case basis between the Student Services Assistant Director and the student.

LAW REVIEW

Students who are currently on law review who wish to earn academic credit for their work on law review may request enrollment for 1 unit at the time of registration. Law review students must perform 50 hours of work throughout the academic year (June through May) for each unit received. Units not exceeding the allowed maximum may be added throughout the semester as additional hours of law review work are performed. In addition, one Law Review unit may be counted towards the minimum units necessary to receive both financial aid (currently 6) and director's scholarships (currently 8 for part-time and 12 for full-time). Deviation from any of the above will require advance written approval from the Law Review faculty advisor.

The Law Review Editor-in-Chief has a list of those students currently participating on law review that will be used to verify law review enrollment. Please be reminded that students will be charged for each registered unit according to current tuition rates. To request enrollment for law review, please email Registrar, Kim Grennan at kimg@tjisl.edu. Upon approval, the Registrar's Office will enroll you in one unit of law review.

CLINICAL EDUCATION & JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIP

To request enrollment for Clinical Education or Judicial Externship, please email Angie Valdiconza of the Externship Office at avaldiconza@tjisl.edu. Upon approval from the Externship Office, the Registrar's Office will process the enrollment request.

SUMMER 2011 CURRICULA NOTES

1. Registration for 8 units during the summer session is the maximum allowed for all students (full-time or part-time).
2. Enrollment in two or more summer sessions may be utilized to accelerate graduation by one semester. Students who have registered (or been registered by the Registrar's Office) for Summer courses before the mailing of notice that their status after computation of grades for the immediately preceding Spring semester is other than academic good standing must withdraw from all but a maximum of three units. Full refunds will be made for the courses from which such students are required to withdraw. (Exception: Any student who has enrolled in and attended Summer session courses before the mailing of notice that his/her status has been changed from academic good standing to probation may, and is encouraged to, withdraw from all but one such course. Such a student shall be entitled to a full refund of tuition for all units then dropped).
4. Students receiving financial assistance must enroll in a minimum of 3 units in the summer session to receive financial assistance.
5. Students should carefully review the course prerequisites to be certain that they are eligible to enroll for a course.
6. Students repeating courses (voluntary or otherwise) MUST RECEIVE PRIOR APPROVAL FROM LISA FERREIRA, DIRECTOR OF STUDENT SERVICES AND NOTIFY REGISTRAR, KIM GRENNAN PRIOR TO OR DURING REGISTRATION. NOTE: REPEATING UNITS MAY AFFECT YOUR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.
7. ALL CLASSES ARE OFFERED SUBJECT TO SUFFICIENT ENROLLMENT AND INSTRUCTOR AVAILABILITY.
8. Students may add or drop classes online until Monday, June 20, 2011 at 5pm. When dropping classes the Refund/Withdrawal policy is effective as of June 13, 2011. Monday, June 20th is the LAST DAY TO ADD CLASSES OR REGISTER (this includes enrollment for law review, moot court, mock trial, ADR and directed study units too). Students (who have completed their first year) may drop classes after that date by contacting the Registrar's Office in writing or completing a drop form in the Registrar's Office.
9. Students should review the Student Handbook and Financial Assistance Handbook outlining the requirements for meeting satisfactory academic progress. These are available online.
