The Chartering Process

Members of student organizations must be enrolled as Thomas Jefferson students. Officers must be in their second semester and meet the co-curricular requirement (some student organizations may have additional requirements for officer positions and membership). All students running for office must be in good academic standing at the time of the organization's election. Students in their second semester and are at-risk may not participate in any co-curricular activity requiring travel or competition, or serve as an officer in any organization.

Any student that becomes ineligible for service will be notified and that student will be required to resign his/her position. Student organizations must have a provision in their constitution that relates to the resignation or loss of an officer and clear, concise instruction on how to fill the position, the election process, and definition of who is a member.

Each organization must submit the following to the Student Affairs Office, each year:

1. Current Constitution and By-laws.
2. Completed Student Organization Information Sheet which lists the following:
 - a. Names, emails, and telephone numbers of officers
 - b. Current membership list with at least 10 members
 - c. Name and email of advisor
 - d. Organization must meet at least once a month
 - e. Month of election of officers
 - f. Signed student organization sheet

Please note that the chartering process outlined above takes precedence over any individual organization requirements. A student organization will not be considered an active organization unless the above criteria are met. Documents must be approved by the advisor and Student Affairs prior to receipt of official charter status (see additional criteria for further information). A student organization not registered with the Student Affairs Office will not be eligible to receive funds, have access to the email system, post materials on the touchscreen, or receive access to room reservations.

In addition, student organizations are required to notify the Student Affairs Office should there be a change in student officers within 10 business days of the change.

Organizations new to the campus must be representing an area not already covered by a current organization. Any organization that does not meet this standard may file a special consideration petition to Lisa Ferreira, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs.

Additional Criteria: All organizations requesting charter status must contain no less than 10 student members. In order to be recognized, all student organizations must comply with the law school's antidiscrimination and anti-harassment policies.

Organizational Space and Student Organization Office: Student organization space is located on the 5th floor of the law school building. The SBA President determines the location of space allocated to each student organization. This space is available for student organization activities/business only. In addition, student organizations receive filing space within the student organization area.

Student Organization Funding

Chartered student organizations are eligible for funding to promote student academic and scholarly endeavors, as well as student-run programs and events. The requirements and criteria for funding are set forth within this document. Should funding be awarded, financing will be distributed to successful applicants as deemed reasonable and appropriate. Student organizations starting in a spring semester may have limited or no access to funding.

Eligible Organizations: An organization will be considered eligible to apply for funding if it is currently chartered with the Student Affairs Office. All organizations must be officially chartered with Student Affairs no later than the second week of fall classes to be eligible to receive funding.

Funds: Funding will be determined by the Student Affairs Office on or about the second week of a fall semester. Funding is not automatic and student organizations should not spend monies until receipt of financial award. Funds cannot be accessed until receipt of signed award agreement. Funding requests must be for the current year. Awards will be divided into two terms (fall and spring). Expense reports for fall expenditures must be submitted by December 15, 2017. Expense reports for spring expenditures must be submitted by June 15, 2018. Unused funds for each term do not carry over into the next semester or budget year. (Example: unused award funds for fall 2017 do not carry over to spring 2018 or budget year 2018-2019.)

- The largest budget amount awarded to a general student organization (excluding the Student Bar Association (SBA)) was $600.
 - Organizations that received this award amount had detailed expenses, several collaborative programs that included academic and social, as well as community activities.
- Most budget amounts were $100-300.
 - Budgets in this area reflected social activities, general membership meetings, and one or two panels.
- There is a lower emphasis on paying for food at general meetings. Rather, there is a higher preference for events that focus on all students' not just general membership.
- Social activities will receive limited funding, and will not include cost of alcohol.
- Budget submissions that do not provide detailed information may not be looked on as favorably as those that reflect clear thought and planning.
- Conference attendance, annual meetings, and attendance at outside events, donations, gift cards, T-shirts, and alcohol are not reimbursable expenses from the law school.
- Funding for events will be received only if the event is open to all Thomas Jefferson students. In addition, student organizations may be asked to provide proof of advertising of any functions via touchscreen flyers or SBA weekly email.

Event Planners: All events (including general meetings) must be booked through an event planner form. The event planner form must be submitted to studentaffairs@tjssl.edu and events@tjssl.edu no later than 72 business hours prior to the event. For larger events, allow at least one month planning. Event planners are available on the SBA website (www.tjssl.edu/sba) and at the Student Affairs Reception Desk. There may be times that space is not available due to limited resources or another previously scheduled event. Student organizations will be advised of this at time of booking.

Purchase Orders: Expenses of $500 or more require the completion of a Purchase Order Form (PO). PO's can take 1.5 weeks to process and must be completed prior to incurring costs. The PO form can be found at the Student Affairs Reception desk. Please consult with a member of the Student Affairs staff prior to using your funding.

Reimbursements: All student organization members who are seeking reimbursements for expenses incurred during an event must complete the Expense Reimbursement Form and include all original itemized receipts (itemized receipts are those that list the items actually purchased; credit card receipts by themselves are not acceptable) and have the student's signature. Please see page 5 for expenses not eligible for reimbursement.

- All student organizations should keep in mind that the processing time for reimbursements or check requests is two weeks. Reimbursement will be forwarded to the treasurer or president of the organization for approval. Please note: reimbursement must be in accordance with the approved budget and cannot be in conflict with the law school's policies and procedures. Any request for reimbursement that does not fall within the approved budget will be returned unprocessed.
- At the end of the semester, any outstanding balances owed by student organizations to departments at Thomas Jefferson will be paid if the organization has remaining funds available.

Changes to Budget Requests: An Addendum must be submitted anytime the organization wishes to use allocated funds in a different manner than previously stated in the Budget Proposal. The addendum must be submitted to the Student Affairs Office at studentaffairs@tjssl.edu prior to spending the funds. Please note that a request to have funds roll-over is not considered an addendum request and will not be considered.

Room Reservations

Student organizations wishing to request a room on campus must complete an Event Planner form available in the Student Affairs Office or on the SBA website (www.tjssl.edu/sba). Event Planners for rooms only must be submitted 72 business days prior to the date needed. Event planners must be submitted to studentaffairs@tjssl.edu AND events@tjssl.edu. There may be instances where rooms are not available for student organizations if Thomas Jefferson needs to utilize all the resources of the school or there is other approved programming. In addition, the organization must leave the room at the designated time and ensure the room is left in good condition.

Email, Posting, Touchscreens, and Logos

Chartered student organizations will receive an email account. The account is to be used as a means of communicating events to your designated membership. For notification of events to be provided to all members of the TJSL community, the organization leader should consult the SBA guidelines found on the SBA website. Email accounts are a privilege afforded to student organizations; however, this privilege is contingent on users honoring the policies and procedures dictated in the Student Handbook. In addition, student organizations may only send emails that advertises a specific event (TJSL) and does not provide a personal or political opinion. The law school may impose additional rules as needed. Any leader not complying with email policies will have their email privileges revoked.

Flyers will only be posted via the touchscreens and students may not post event flyers in the restrooms or any other area within the law school. To have a flyer posted on the touchscreen please email touchscreenflyer@tjssl.edu.

Further Policies and procedures for emails and posting at Thomas Jefferson School of Law:

1. All flyers, or email messages must have clear sponsorship identification, as well as where and when the event will take place. Speakers should also be clearly listed. All this information must be clearly displayed. Please note: all copyrighted work should be attributed to the author. If the Communications or Student Affairs Offices has questions or concerns regarding an email or flyer, the staff will contact the student organization in order to engage in a discussion regarding the intent and purpose of the posting.

It should be noted that the policies and procedures provide that violations of the policy will result in a warning by the Student Affairs Office. The second occurrence of a violation will result in the loss of privileges for posting or emailing for that semester.

Student organizations may not use the law school's name, past or current logo on any items without the written permission of the Director of Marketing and Communications. In addition, student organizations may not use their own logo with the law school's name.

Planning Organizational Events

Many student organizations plan events onsite during the course of the academic year. Student organizations must complete an Event Planner for each event. The Event Planner provides the Events Office with essential information in order to access the resources needed to facilitate your event. The Event Planner can be found on the SBA website.

When planning your event, we recommend that you have at least one month lead time. However, if your organization is planning a large symposium or other high-profile lecture series, one semester advance planning is strongly advised. Remember: you must receive authorization prior to planning your event. Students planning symposiums or professional panels should consult the Event Coordinator.

Please note: This is a private law school; therefore, student organizations may not invite the public to an event or meeting without prior consent from the Student Affairs Office.

In addition to the services provided by the student, the Event Coordinator and Communications personnel can provide guidance on event planning and media exposure. By completing the Event Planner, your event needs will be assessed and an event planner will work with you to discuss large-scale planning. All media coverage anticipated on or off campus for an organizational event must be approved by the Director of Marketing and Communications. The Communications Office will assist you with alerting local media and potential press releases. Please note: media coverage is often dependent on mass appeal and/or other news opportunities in San Diego County.

Student organizations that are funding their event may request information on potential catering from the Events Office. Any catering that does not utilize school funds will be the responsibility of the student organization. The organization will work with the caterer and provide payment directly. The law school may not be billed for expenses not authorized by the Student Affairs Office.

The 8th Floor of the law school is designed for special events; therefore, it will not be available for general meetings. Any student organization who wishes to use the 8th floor must provide detailed information on the event planner as to how their event is deemed a special occasion. The Event staff will review the request with the assistance of the Student Affairs Office and the organization will be notified of the outcome.

Throughout your planning process, it is important to check in with the offices offering assistance. Careful planning and regular check-ins can keep planning on track and provide a less stressful experience.

Policies and procedures regarding room reservation:

1. Reserved space will be available at the reservation start-time scheduled. It is essential that all reservations terminate at the scheduled end-time.
2. The Events Coordinator must be notified (events@tjssl.edu) of any cancellation as soon as possible, and not later than noon the day before the event, or by noon on Friday for a weekend event.
3. The sponsoring party is responsible for all set-ups, equipment requests, and clean up.
4. All events that are open to the public will require additional security provided by GMI. This cost may be charged to the sponsoring group. Please note: any request for public guests must be submitted at the time of booking and be approved.
5. Thomas Jefferson School of Law is not responsible for any materials and/or outside equipment left in the building overnight or during breaks.
6. The sponsoring group or individual will be held financially responsible for the costs of repairs if equipment or property is damaged.
7. Decorations or other materials should not be attached to the walls or doors of the facility. The sponsoring group must remove all materials at the conclusion of the event.

8. Thomas Jefferson School of Law is not responsible for any losses or injuries suffered by any person as a result of a room reservation and/or activities sponsored by the reserving organization.
9. Violations of the policies and procedures may result in the sponsor or sponsoring organization losing the privilege of sponsoring future events.

Parking for Guest Speakers:

Student organization leaders should provide within the event planner if they have a speaker/guest who would like to park underneath the building. Parking privileges can change; therefore, we advise you make sure you receive approval prior to notifying your speaker.

Fundraising: All student organizations who would like to fundraise (externally) for their organization should make an appointment with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs who will work with the Alumni Relations and Development Office.
