

NCLR 2011 – Frequently Asked Questions

- Q: Why is the early-bird deadline November 30, 2010?
- A: Due to contractual obligations, NCLR 2011 is unable to offer the early-bird discount after November 30, 2010.
- Q: How do I register members of the 2011-2012 managing board who have not yet been elected?
- A: Please register your journals' future editors-elect under the name [Journal Title]-elect. Simply email nclreditor@tjssl.edu when a name can be provided.
- Q: Is the registration cost per person or per journal?
- A: The cost of registration is per person.
- Q: When will the Conference schedule be posted?
- A: By November 15, 2010.
- Q: When and how do I register for activities?
- A: Students will register for activities during check-in on Wednesday, March 30, 2011.
- Q: How do I obtain W9 information for Thomas Jefferson School of Law?
- A: Please send nclreditor@tjssl.edu an email requesting this information along with a corresponding fax number.
- Q: Are students compensated for participating on panels?
- A: No, but the experience is invaluable.
- Q: How do I sponsor a meal or activity?
- A: Contact Sarah Harty at nclreditor@tjssl.edu with your proposal.
