

Thomas Jefferson School of Law, in conjunction with Environmental Law Society and The Center for Law and Intellectual Property, present:

HOLLYWOOD

SWINGING:

FILM & TELEVISION CREATORS AND THE LONG ARM OF THE LAW

Saturday, April 7th, 1:30 PM - 4:30 PM, Room 225

Cocktail / dinner reception to follow on the 8th floor lounge

This exciting forum features Hollywood creators and the LA lawyers they feed, exploring film and TV issues from copyright and contracts to court cases and the creative process.

STARRING:

- ★ Jeff B. Cohen: Named one of the top 35 executives under 35 years of age by "The Hollywood Reporter." Additionally that year, Jeff was profiled by "Variety" in its Dealmakers Impact Issue.
- ★ Mona Mahdara Alcalá: 2008 TJSJ grad representing film companies at Libertas Law Group.
- ★ Eric Sherman: Producer, writer, director, author of "Directing The Film and Selling Your Film."
- ★ Josell Ramos: Fast-rising independent film maker, producer and director "Maestro."
- ★ Nikki Barbanell: 2006 TJSJ grad, film production counsel and co-producer of Sundance film "The Dry Land."
- ★ Moderator: Professor Jeff Slattery
- ★ Producer and Host: Professor KJ Greene, nationally recognized IP professor and speaker.
- ★ Directed by: Lindsey Shannon Lee, President of The Entertainment Law Society.

CLE Credit: 1 HR

RSVP: fergussm@tjssl.edu