Important: Regularly scheduled Monday and Tuesday classes will not meet during Midterms - February 24, 25 & 26. Midterm exams are mandatory and cannot be waived or rescheduled except in compelling, extraordinary circumstances. Students are responsible for avoiding conflicts in their exam schedule when registering for classes. An accommodation may be arranged for exams that are scheduled at the same time if a student is required to enroll in the conflicting courses. Having multiple exams on the same day but at different times is not considered a conflict. All personal travel should be avoided during midterms.
